Katharine and Elizabeth Corr
THRONE OF SWANS

Publication: Spring 2020

WORLD RIGHTS

Television & Film Rights: Rogers, Coleridge
and White

Extent: 352pp tbc

KATHARINE and ELIZABETH CORR are sisters and writers. When they both decided to write novels – on account of fictional people being much easier to deal with than real ones – it was obvious they should do it together. They can sometimes be found in one of their local coffee shops, arguing over which character to kill off next. Katharine and Elizabeth are authors of the spell-binding series THE WITCH'S KISS.

In a world where the flightless are ruled by those who can fly . . .

When her father dies just before her birthday, seventeen-year-old Odile inherits the role of Protector of Atratys, a dominion in a kingdom where nobles are able to transform at will into the bird that represents their family bloodline. Odile's ancestral bird is a swan. But she has not transformed for years, not since witnessing the death of her mother – ripped apart by hawks that have supposedly been extinct since the long-ago War of the Raptors.

With the benevolent shelter of her mother and her father now lost, Odile is at the mercy of her brutal uncle, the king, and his royal court. Driven by revenge and love, she must venture into the malevolent heart of the Citadel in order to seek the truth about the attack that so nearly destroyed her, to fight for the only home she has ever known and for the land she has vowed to protect.

Loosely inspired by SWAN LAKE, and written in rich detail and evocative language, this is the start of an irresistible, soaring duology about courage, broken loyalties and fighting for your place in the world.

THE RED RIBBON, published by Hot Key Books in 2018, was nominated and shortlisted for the Carnegie Prize 2018, the Manchester Book Prize, the Leeds Book Prize and the Rotherham Book Award.

A powerful tale of bravery, tolerance and identity set in the aftermath of World War Two.

Brigid is one of a group of child refugees being escorted to England by the Red Cross in October 1946. She is a serious, silent figure, with worn clothes and shoes and a small cardboard suitcase containing all her belongings. On arrival at Waterloo station however, Brigid breaks from the group and runs . . .

Brigid has a secret which she has buried deep inside her. She also has an ulterior motive: she needs to get to a place called Summerland Hall, where she hopes she will find the one person left alive who is deeply important to her.

An extraordinary tale, with some events inspired by history, that encompasses truth, tolerance, racism and forgiveness.

M. A. BENNETT is half Venetian and was born in Manchester, England. She is a history graduate of Oxford University and the University of Venice, where she specialised in the study of Shakespeare's plays as a historical source. After university she studied art and has since worked as an illustrator, an actress and a film reviewer. She also designed tour visuals for rock bands, including U2 and the Rolling Stones.

The explosive sequel to S.T.A.G.S.

A few weeks after the dramatic events that led to the death of Henry de Warlencourt, Greer Macdonald is back at S.T.A.G.S., trying to concentrate on her studies. She is struggling with a play she has to direct for her drama exam, when she gets help from an unexpected quarter . . .

A priceless lost play, buried by time, is pushed under her door. It is Ben Jonson's The Isle of Dogs, a play considered so dangerous in Elizabethan times that every copy was burned . . . except one. As the students begin to rehearse it, events become increasingly dark and strange, and they lead Greer back to where she never thought she would return – Longcross Hall.

There she discovers that not only is the Order of the Stag alive and well, but that a ghost from the past might be too . . .

Atmospheric, chilling and impossible to second-guess, the much-anticipated sequel to S.T.A.G.S. continues to explore the twisted nature of privilege as Greer fights her obsession with Henry de Warlencourt.

The series continues with the unmissable F.O.X.E.S., H.A.W.K.S. and T.I.G.E.R.S.

When she is not writing, Yasmin makes bookish fan art; her designs are sold worldwide on behalf of John Green. ALL THE THINGS WE NEVER SAID is her first novel.

A pact is a pact, after all.

Sixteen-year-old Mehreen Miah has been fighting anxiety and depression – her 'Chaos' – for as long as she can remember.

When she discovers MementoMori.com she sees a solution: the website matches people with partners and allocates them a date and method of death: 'the pact'. Mehreen is paired with Cara Saunders and Olivia Castleton: each dealing with profound issues of their own.

The girls quickly develop a strong bond; having people who understand what you're going through really helps, and how could they have forgotten how fun and happy life can be? It's not long before all three want out of the pact. But in a terrifying twist of fate, the website won't let them stop. An increasingly sinister game begins as the girls are set against each other, sliding closer and closer to the edge of the abyss.

A heart-stopping, poignant debut written from three points of view, drawing on the author's own experiences of teenage depression and mental illness.

ALL THE BRIGHT PLACES meets LOOKING FOR ALASKA, in this unforgettable celebration of being alive and the life-saving power of friendship.

PERFECTLY PREVENTABLE DEATHS

Publication: June 2019

WORLD RIGHTS

Television & Film Rights: Darley Anderson

Extent: 368pp

DEIRDRE SULLIVAN is a writer from Galway. Her books include the PRIMROSE LEARY trilogy, NEEDLEWORK (winner of the CBI Honour Award for Fiction) and TANGLEWEED AND BRINE, a collection of dark fairy-tale retellings, which won an Irish Book Award for Best YA Book of the Year 2017.

An isolated town. Generations of dark secrets . . .

Fifteen-year-old twins Madeline and Catlin move to a new life in Ballyfrann, a strange isolated Irish town, a place where the earth is littered with small corpses and unspoken truths. A place where, for the last sixty years, teenage girls have gone missing in the surrounding mountains.

As distance grows between the twins – as Catlin falls in love, and Madeline begins to understand her own nascent witchcraft – Madeline discovers that Ballyfrann is a place full of predators. When Catlin falls into the gravest danger of all, Madeline must ask herself who she really is, and who she wants to be – or rather, who she might have to become to save her sister.

Dark and savage, this is a highly lyrical coming-of-age thriller, about the bond between twins, witchcraft and the sacrifices we make for those we care about the most. For fans of Frances Hardinge and Laure Eve.

‘Deirdre Sullivan handles darkness in a way that instills addictive dread, but also, somehow, hope . . . this tale of rural horror, family and peril, is the Irish Gothic we deserve.’

SARA MARIA GRIFFIN, AUTHOR OF SPARE AND FOUND PARTS

‘A thrilling, eerie exploration of sisterhood, first love and dark powers. PERFECTLY PREVENTABLE DEATHS lures you in with wit and compassion before hitting with horror and twists worthy of Stephen King or Shirley Jackson. Nobody writes teenagers or witches like Deirdre and this is her best novel yet.’

SOPHIE GREEN has a degree in zoology and is a librarian. Her first novel, THE LAST GIANT, was shortlisted for the Times/Chicken House Fiction Competition in 2011. Potkin and Stubbs was initially a short story which was shortlisted for the Bath Children's Novel Award. Most importantly, Sophie lives in a haunted house and her ghost stories are all clearly based on authentic real-life experiences!

Scooby Doo meets Casper in Gotham City.

Aspiring journalist Lil Potkin roams bleak Peligan City in her bright yellow raincoat, investigating unsolved stories. One rainy evening, at the bus station, she meets a sad-looking boy who no one else seems to see. He doesn't want to admit it, but he is actually a ghost; and when he finally remembers his name (Nedly . . . possibly) he explains that he needs Lil's help to find out what happened to him after he disappeared from his orphanage a year ago. So Lil and Nedly – aka Potkin and Stubbs – team up to solve their mystery, soon joined by once-famous detective Abe Mandrel. With Lil's Sherlockian intuition, Abe's experience and Nedly's convenient invisibility, Peligan City's most vicious secrets will soon be exposed.

Atmospheric, spooky, warm at heart, POTKIN AND STUBBS is the first in an irresistible young detective trilogy for boys and girls aged 9+.

Perfect for fans of Lemony Snicket, Neil Gaiman and Eva Ibbotson.

Extent: 272pp tbc

CAROLINE LAWRENCE is the author of the ROMAN MYSTERIES books, first published in 2001, which have sold over a million copies in the UK and been translated into fourteen languages. The series was televised by the BBC in 2007 and 2008 with ten half-hour episodes per season. Filmed in Tunisia, Bulgaria and Malta, it was the most expensive BBC children's TV series to date.

The temple of Mithras – where past meets present.

Billionaire Solomon Daisy is obsessed with the skeleton of a blue-eyed African girl from Roman London. He has managed to invent a time machine so that he can go and find her, but it is estimated that for each hour spent in the past, an adult time traveller's life will be shortened by months, a child's only by seconds. Solomon decides to recruit a child time traveller, Alex Papas, a twelve-year-old boy who knows a smattering of Greek and Latin.

Alex's mission is to go back to Londinium through a portal in London's Mithraeum to find out all he can about the blue-eyed girl. There are just three rules: naked you go and naked you must return; drink, don't eat; as little interaction as possible.

But time travel is no picnic – and Roman London is far more dangerous than anyone could have known.

The first in a two-book, nail-biting, time-travel series for readers 9+ from the bestselling author of the THE ROMAN MYSTERIES.

The adventure continues with JOURNEY TO ATHENS, where Alex travels to ancient Athens to meet Socrates.

'A mad time travel romp with a realistic historical edge'

HOW TO WRITE A GREAT STORY

Publication: August 2019

WORLD RIGHTS

Extent: 208pp tbc

A book can change the world.

Writing a story is about letting your imagination run wild . . . but it is also about tricks and devices that make it compelling and stand on its feet.

Bestselling author Caroline Lawrence shares her best tips from her twenty-year experience as a writer, with examples from all kind of books and films.

For example have you ever heard of the Save the Cat trick?

At the beginning of a story the main character often does something nice, like save a cat stuck up a tree. This is to make the reader like them and present them straightaway as our heroes, the good guys. At the beginning of THE WIZARD OF OZ, Dorothy risks her life to save her dog Toto. In RAIDERS OF THE LOST ARK, Indiana Jones (twice) saves a guide even though he knows he was probably going to betray him . . . You can do a fun twist called Kill the Dog to show the hero is maybe not so nice.

Discover the many secrets of storytelling in this fun guide to creative writing for budding writers 9+, illustrated with Linzie Hunter's lively black-and-white artwork on every page.

'Caroline captures the children's imaginations and makes them feel like they CAN write.'

Fairy tales for 'rebel' readers

Meet Trumplestiltskin, the furious, gold-obsessed angry little man who kidnaps the president's daughter to spin gold for him.

And Sleeping Brainy, the princess whose only dream is to become Chancellor of the Exchequer. Then the Gingerbread Kid, who uses his baking skills to befriend his new classmates when his family flees from the wolf and fox dangers of Fairy Tale Land.

There's Rap-Unzel, who seeks fame with her rapping skills – but not if it means cutting off her glorious long hair; Mouldysocks, who upsets three bears by being the messiest little boy in the world; and upcoming fashion designer Lil' Red, whose riding hoodies are the most-wanted in town.

Delivered with the vibrant, fresh voice of Blue Peter's Konnie Huq, writing with James Kay, this brilliant anarchic collection shakes up tired old misogynist fairy tales, redressing the balance for the twenty-first century!

THE RIDDLETOWN DRAGON / THE BALLOON OF DOOM

MR GUM meets SHREK and THE PRINCESS BRIDE

Bright, quick-witted Beatrix is a queen . . . except she doesn't know that yet. And that's because her parents pretended she had died and sent her away to keep her safe. And the Evil Army won't have that.

Beatrix has never been allowed out of the palace she lives in with Aunt Esmerelda the Terrible and Uncle Ivan the Vicious – she's always been told there is no world outside it. THE WIND IN THE WALL

A dark new fairy tale with a twist

'I have no idea how long I have been incarcerated in these ancient walls . . . Let me explain how I find myself in this predicament . . .'

Set in the greenhouses of a stately home in eighteenth-century England, a gardener falls from grace when the duke sets him the impossible task of growing prize pineapples fit to show off in high society.

The gardener's star falls further when he is replaced by Mr Amicus, a pineapple 'specialist', whom he believes to be a charlatan and a trickster – but who, nevertheless miraculously produces fruit to delight the duke.

Determined to discover Mr Amicus's tricks, the gardener sneaks into the pineapple house to uncover the mysterious shrouded birdcage Mr Amicus carries with him. And what he finds changes his life forever . . .

A cautionary tale with echoes of myth and fairy tale, this bewitching fable will make you careful what you wish for.

GWEN MILLWARD has illustrated GUESS WHAT I FOUND IN DRAGON WOOD (Puffin), THE BOG BABY by Jeanne Willis and the CHARMSEEKERS series by Amy Tree (Orion).

If Roald Dahl had written A MONSTER CALLS . . .

Everyone is always shouting at Gus to stop leaning back in his chair – but does he care? No way! Then sure enough, the chair falls, he cracks his head and has to spend all summer in bed. Out of the crack escape his memories, dreams and imagination . . . and a beautiful little butterfly guide. Gus must follow the butterfly to recapture all he's lost – including that locked box he doesn't seem to want to touch . . .

Together they remember fish fingers, snapping bubble wrap, cracked pink soap and the leaky tap; they go wild, stomping around in the joy of imagination and happy dreams – but they can't go any further if Gus won't gather all of his memories. His butterfly will die unless Gus is ready to hear about his mum . . .

A delightful and moving exploration of grief and the joy of all that makes us human, from the sparkling voice of Laura Dockrill, with heartwarming full-colour illustrations from Gwen Millward.
